AMMA SRI KARUNAMAYI- BACKGROUND

Sri Karunamayi Amma is venerated in India as a living incarnation of the Divine Mother. "Karunamayi" literally means "compassionate one". Amma warmly receives everyone as Her beloved children.

Before Amma's birth, the great saint Ramana Maharshi told Amma's mother that she would give birth to the Divine Mother. In Her childhood, Sri Karunamayi Amma delighted all with Her deeply compassionate nature and intuitive understanding of Holy Vedic Scriptures, even though She never studied Sanskrit formally.

At the age of 21, Amma withdrew to a sacred forest in southern India (where a number of India's ancient sages had meditated for many hundreds of years) and meditated for over 10 years on behalf of all humanity. When She emerged from this period of silence, Amma began her mission to share divine wisdom and love with the entire world.

Amma Sri Karunamayi has said that She has not come as a guru, but rather as a loving mother who wishes to provide spiritual sustenance to Her children in their quest for Self-Realization.

AMMA'S HUMANITARIAN PROJECTS

Amma provides free education, free medical care, free clothing, free meals, clean drinking water, and free housing to hundreds of thousands of the underprivileged in India.

During Her time in the remote Penusila forest, Amma saw for Herself the physical suffering of the villagers, who often did not have enough to eat or suffered from diseases and conditions that could have been treated if they had access to a doctor. Seeing this suffering first-hand, Amma arranged for free meals to be served and for medical camps to be held free of charge. Wishing to provide the villagers with full-time quality healthcare, Amma initiated the construction of a hospital to provide free medical care to the 500,000 villagers who do not have access to health care. Free outpatient clinics are held on a weekly basis to address current health needs, as many villagers lack the means to obtain even simple pain-relieving medications like aspirin.

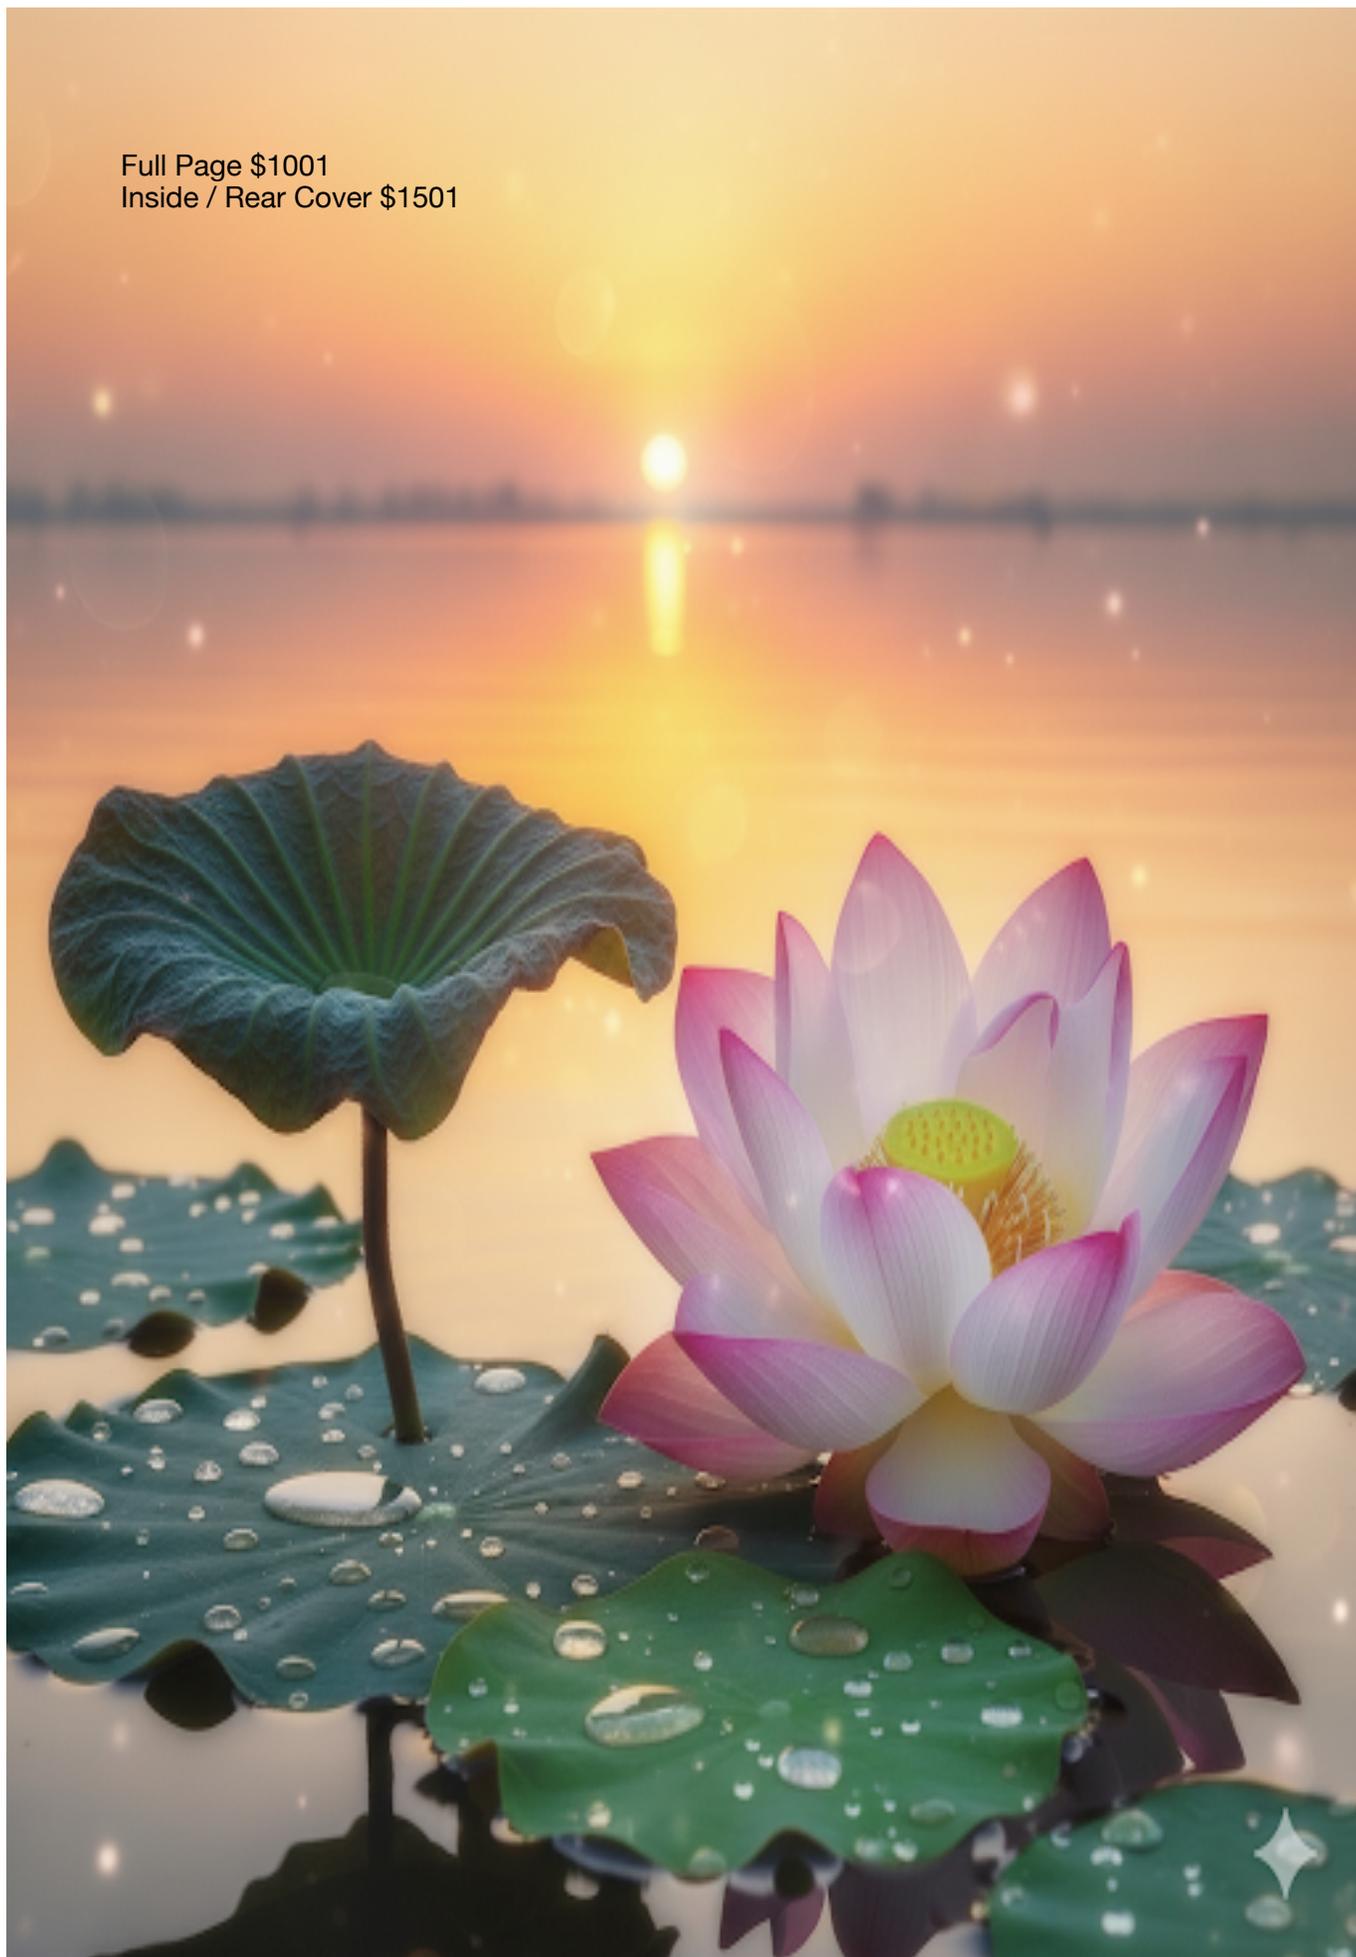

The SMVA Trust, founded by Amma Sri Karunamayi in 1995, is a global non-profit organization with a vision of unity and compassion for all. Amma's unwavering commitment to uplifting and empowering vulnerable communities is rooted in her belief in unconditional love and compassion for all living beings.
